The INK Festival

12th, 13th and 14th April 2019

2019 will be the fifth year that the INK Festival will be held at The Cut, Halesworth, Suffolk showcasing over 40 brand new short plays, staged and performed by 40 professional actors and directors making it one of the largest producing festivals in the UK. After the sell-out success of last year, the 2019 Festival has been expanded to include a third day with performances taking place in additional new locations, including The MR King showroom and The Museum

Four well known writers have each written a 5-minute script: Scarlett Curtis, Paul Heiney, Shappi Khorsandi and Greg Mosse will all have their plays performed at The Festival.

Performance Poet Luke Wright will perform, Shappi Khorsandi, (Mock the Week, Have I Got News for You, QI and I'm a Celebrity) is in stand-up comedy on Saturday 13th April. Workshops and talks will be given by Greg Mosse, Richard Curtis, Robin Brooks, Simon Nelson and many more leading theatrical professionals. There is a children's programme 'A Play in a Day' - children will be given the opportunity to write, produce and perform a play in 24 hours.

Art@INK, an exhibition of 12 artists new work will be shown in The Gallery at The Cut. Julia Sowerbutts, Artistic Director "We have received over 300 submissions of new short plays for stage and radio, a huge increase on last year - 2019 is going to be a wonderful festival of such contrasting work - a showcase of the incredible talent here in Eastern England"
